Hello, my name is Daniel Murgatroyd, I'm a second year Creative Writing and English Literature student. I am also the Treasurer for DMU LGBT+ and DMU Card Gaming Societies, as well as the current LGBTQ+ Representative. I am running to once again serve as the LGBTQ+ Rep as well as running for consideration to part of the delegation for the NUS Conference.

The reason why I am running for these positions is so I can continue to affect change on campus, engaging with DSU and NUS to create policies that maintain and enhance the safe environment at DMU.

Since I started I've introduced policy to Council, worked with the LGBT+ Society on a variety of events including #DMUPride, attended two NUS Conferences and have amended policy for a third. However, this is nothing more than a start.

If re-elected I will:

- Continue to research and write policies that improve equality within DSU and use it as a platform to lobby DMU for greater change.
- Continue to work with DMU LGBT+ Society to create a wide range of events leading to a memorable University experience, as well as raise awareness of issues facing LGBT+ students, as well as issues that affect students in general.

- Engage with national and local campaigns, as well as NUS initiatives that are beneficial to DSU and DMU students.
- Continue to work with the full and part time Officers to create a fair and safe environment for all students.
- Work with DMU, DSU, DMU LGBT+ Society and students to create an insightful, thought provoking and enjoyable #DMUPride 2017

Thank you for your time, once again, I am Daniel Murgatroyd. And thank you for considering me to be your LGBTQ+ Rep.
