As a Marxist student, my three main aims are:-

1. I will fight for a safe campus environment for women (and for men) as I feel this is an area that needs to be addressed more by us as students.
2. I will set up workshops on campus, alongside societies that work to promote women's confidence, self-worth and assertiveness.
3. I will ensure the Students' Union take part in campaigning for equality in a collective pursuit with students.

I have been active in campaigning against human trafficking, engaging in an Action Research Project which is looking to empower women. I have also co-ordinated a multilateral youth exchange called the PeaceFest, which was predominantly women and young girls. I have also attended self-defence classes in Cyprus.

One main aim I would like to achieve upon election, is to organise a Women's Conference to build self-worth and challenge sex discrimination, including raising awareness of the real threat in the proximity of the campus to women's safety and well-being. I will be a strong supporter of the 'This Girl Can' campaign as well as raising the profile of International Women's Day during the time that I would be representing our women on campus and beyond DMU.

NUS DELEGATE

I feel I will be suitable for this role, as I wish to represent both national and international students across our university- embodying their concerns, individuality and perspectives to the best of my ability as a student at De Montfort.
