

Black, Asian, and Minority Ethnic (BAME) Representative

Part-time Role

ROLE DESCRIPTION

Liberation Representative Responsibilities:

- Embrace the values of the Students' Union and be a positive change agent for all students despite specific portfolio responsibilities.
- Engage with students and encourage participation in campaigns and events.
- Coordinate with other liberation representatives to ensure that campaigns remain intersectional.
- Attend Student Council, the Liberation Committee and appropriate Zone committees.
- Attend University Committees and work with relevant University departments, as appropriate.
- Produce a termly report on their activities to Student Council.
- Work closely, but not exclusively, with the Equality & Diversity Executive.

Role Specific Responsibilities:

- Lead the implementation and promotion of BAME campaigns and awareness raising events within DSU such as Black History Month.
- Engage and increase participation of the BAME Students' community at DSU and represent their best interests to the Union and University.
- Chair and govern all meetings of the BAME Students' Network to coordinate campaigns and gauge student opinion on BAME related issues.
- Ensure students are aware of BAME support mechanisms within the union and university for students such as #DareToBe.